

24th of July 2016 | Beyond the Harbour – What does that mean for me?

Speaker: Tim Drough

These small group questions are designed to be worked-through after listening to Sunday's message. If you missed Sunday's message the questions will still allow you to contribute and/or you can listen to the message on our website (messages are usually uploaded on a Tuesday): www.mayfieldcofc.org.au

Question 1: On Sunday there was a short play about images of the harbour. Share with your group the thoughts and feelings you have when you think about the harbour. What images resonate with you?

Question 2: The harbour seems like a safe place, why would God want to draw us out of that, doesn't he care about how safe we are?

Read a paragraph each of Acts 16:1-15 (don't worry about pronunciation!)

Question 3: As a group discuss what stands out to you in this reading regarding going beyond the harbour.

Question 4: Paul encountered barriers which ultimately led him to where God wanted him to be (Acts 16:6-8). Share a time in your life when you've encountered barriers that in hindsight may have been God directing your path.

Tim shared on Sunday that going beyond the harbour means for him:

- Taking responsibility
- Going places he's never been before
- Doing things he's never done before

Question 5: Share a time in your life when you've had to do one of the above. Thinking about going beyond the harbour, which of the above are you most concerned about? Why?

Question 6: Allow some space to think about what going beyond the harbour means for you personally. Commit to taking one step towards where God is leading. If you're comfortable, share with your group what you believe God is saying to you or, how you will take steps in the next week to find out.

Pray for one another.
